NAMES.

A.

G.

L. Cotula fætida.

I.

G. Ochs Auge.

F.

S. Mancanilla loca.

D.

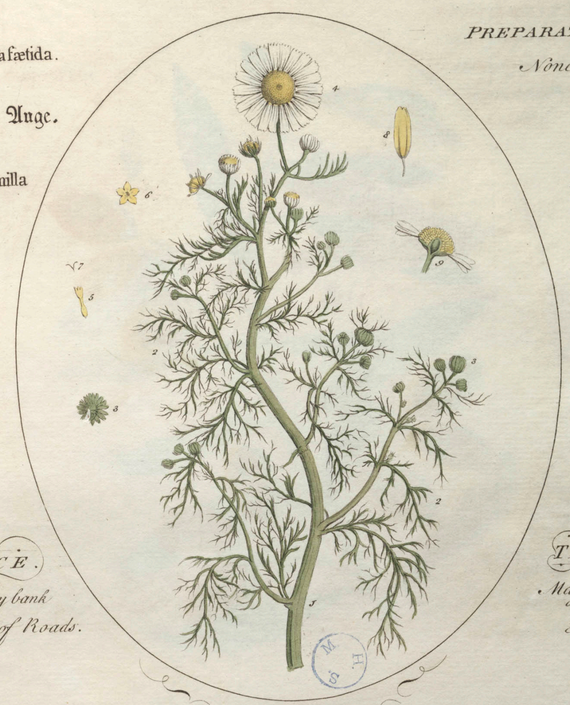
MAY-WEED.

PARTS USED.

The Leaves

PREPARATIONS

None



PLACE.

On every bank & sides of Roads.

TIME.

May June &c.

DESCRIPTION.

The Root is hard & Crooked, having very few Fibres. The Stalk (1) is firm Cannel'd, full of hollow Tubes like a Bamboo Cane. of a lighter Green than the leaves, (2) which are smooth Shinning, of a midling Green. The Cups (3) are composed of many small light Green parts. The flowers (4) have very white leaves set Round a semi Globe of a Yellow flosculus, or small Flowers (5) in the Middle. every one Divided into five Segments (6) with a Style (7) and Farina of a Rich Yellow colour. (8) a Petal. (9) a Flower cut, which shews a hollowness under that part the Seeds with the Florets on them Stand upon with Petals at each side. — 5-6-7-8 are parts Magnified.

VIRTUES.

An Infusion of the Plant fresh is good against Hysteric Complaints, & if Boild till it is soft is of benefit against the Piles.

T. Sheldrake delin.

C.H. Hemerich Sculpt.